The Magnificent Ocean and the Sacred Geometry

Certain numbers and patterns seem to dominate the geometry of the universe. In this case the 25-pointed star and the astounding complexity of the sea life were used as a muse for the building in the form of a sea shell, symbolizing the magnificent marine heritage. With the appropriate lighting, the shell-structure glitters like a precious stone due to its geometric qualities.

A Reinvented Javanese Kingdom

For those who have not yet visited the Indonesian Islands, we've got good news coming your way. We have reimagined the traditional Javanese "Joglo" houses in a picturesque village complex, to celebrate the vibrant Indonesian heritage carried by the early inhabitants of Peninsula Malaysia.

A Renown University Goes Back to it's Roots

University Malaysia Kelantan pays tribute to its regional heritage by redefining the character of its new campus into a dynamic centre of learning by teaching a lesson of traditional Malaysian architecture to the generations to come.

Embossed-style Arabesque Paintings

Part of the Cultural Heritage of the Middle East is its exclusivity of art brought down from generation to generation. These unique Ottoman-period forms of art have been translated into modern-day fine artworks by the Master artist Abdul Rauf Baydoun.

Designer Desserts

With the festive season approaching, we would like to share with you some of our latest (and sweetest) design creations: the desserts! Because they're sooo good, we had to organise a dessert competition and call for qualified judges from the industry to tell them apart.

A panel of three judges (centre to right: Holiday Villa Subang, Chef Azram, Holiday Villa Manager, Ms. Nisa and a special guest from Italy, Ms. Maria) are tasting each dessert. Entries are judged on overall appearance and taste.

We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy 2014!

We'd like to express our gratitude to our Clients and business partners for the wonderful cooperation we have enjoyed this year.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

And stay tuned with Urbanews for more updates.

Warm Regards,
